SELLER TIP

FIXTURES USUALLY STAY.

On NC's standard offer form, existing fixtures are included in the price unless excluded in writing.

- Light fixtures, ceiling fans
- Built-in appliances
- Blinds, shades, curtain rods
- Mirrors and TV wall mounts

SELLER TIP

THE LIST GOES OUTSIDE, TOO.

The NC form's list also covers items around the home and yard.

- In-ground plants and trees
- Storage sheds
- Mailboxes, outdoor lighting
- EV chargers, solar systems

SELLER TIP

SMART DEVICES COUNT, TOO.

Smart versions of listed items stay. Before closing, the NC form asks you to clear them.

- Thermostats, doorbells
- Security cameras, sensors
- Unpair from phones and apps
- Delete data, factory reset

SELLER TIP

TAKING IT?
PUT IT IN WRITING.

Plan to keep something that would normally stay? List it as excluded in the contract.

- A favorite light fixture
- When in doubt, list it
- Or swap it before you list
- Repair any removal damage

SELLER TIP

LEASED ITEMS DON'T CONVEY.

Anything leased or not owned by you must be identified in the contract.

- Leased alarm systems
- Leased fuel tanks
- Liens on solar or HVAC
- Ask your attorney early

SELLER TIP

PERSONAL ITEMS ARE SEPARATE.

Freestanding items, like a refrigerator, are personal property. If one is part of the sale, list it.

- Freestanding refrigerator
- Curtains and draperies
- Listed at no value in NC
- Buyer's lender may weigh in

SELLER TIP

MATCH THE LISTING TO THE CONTRACT.

The NC form says not to assume an item stays or goes based on an ad.

- Walk the home room by room
- Note what you plan to take
- Tell your broker before listing
- In SC, read your contract too
