
SELLER TIPS
SELLING? GET SHOWING-READY.
BEFORE BUYERS WALK IN.
A few simple steps help buyers focus on the home, not the clutter
Most take an afternoon, not a renovation
Here's what I recommend before every showing

FIRST LOOK
START AT THE CURB.
Sweep the walk, trim the shrubs and clear the porch
Make sure the doorbell, lock and porch light all work
An easy, tidy entry sets the tone for the tour

LIGHT
LET THE LIGHT IN.
Open blinds and curtains before each showing
Turn on lamps and replace dim or burned-out bulbs
Bright rooms are easier to see, in person and in photos

SURFACES

CLEAR THE COUNTERS.

- Put away small appliances, mail and everyday items
- Leave open space on counters, tables and shelves
- Start packing what you won't need before the move

LOCK UP VALUABLES.

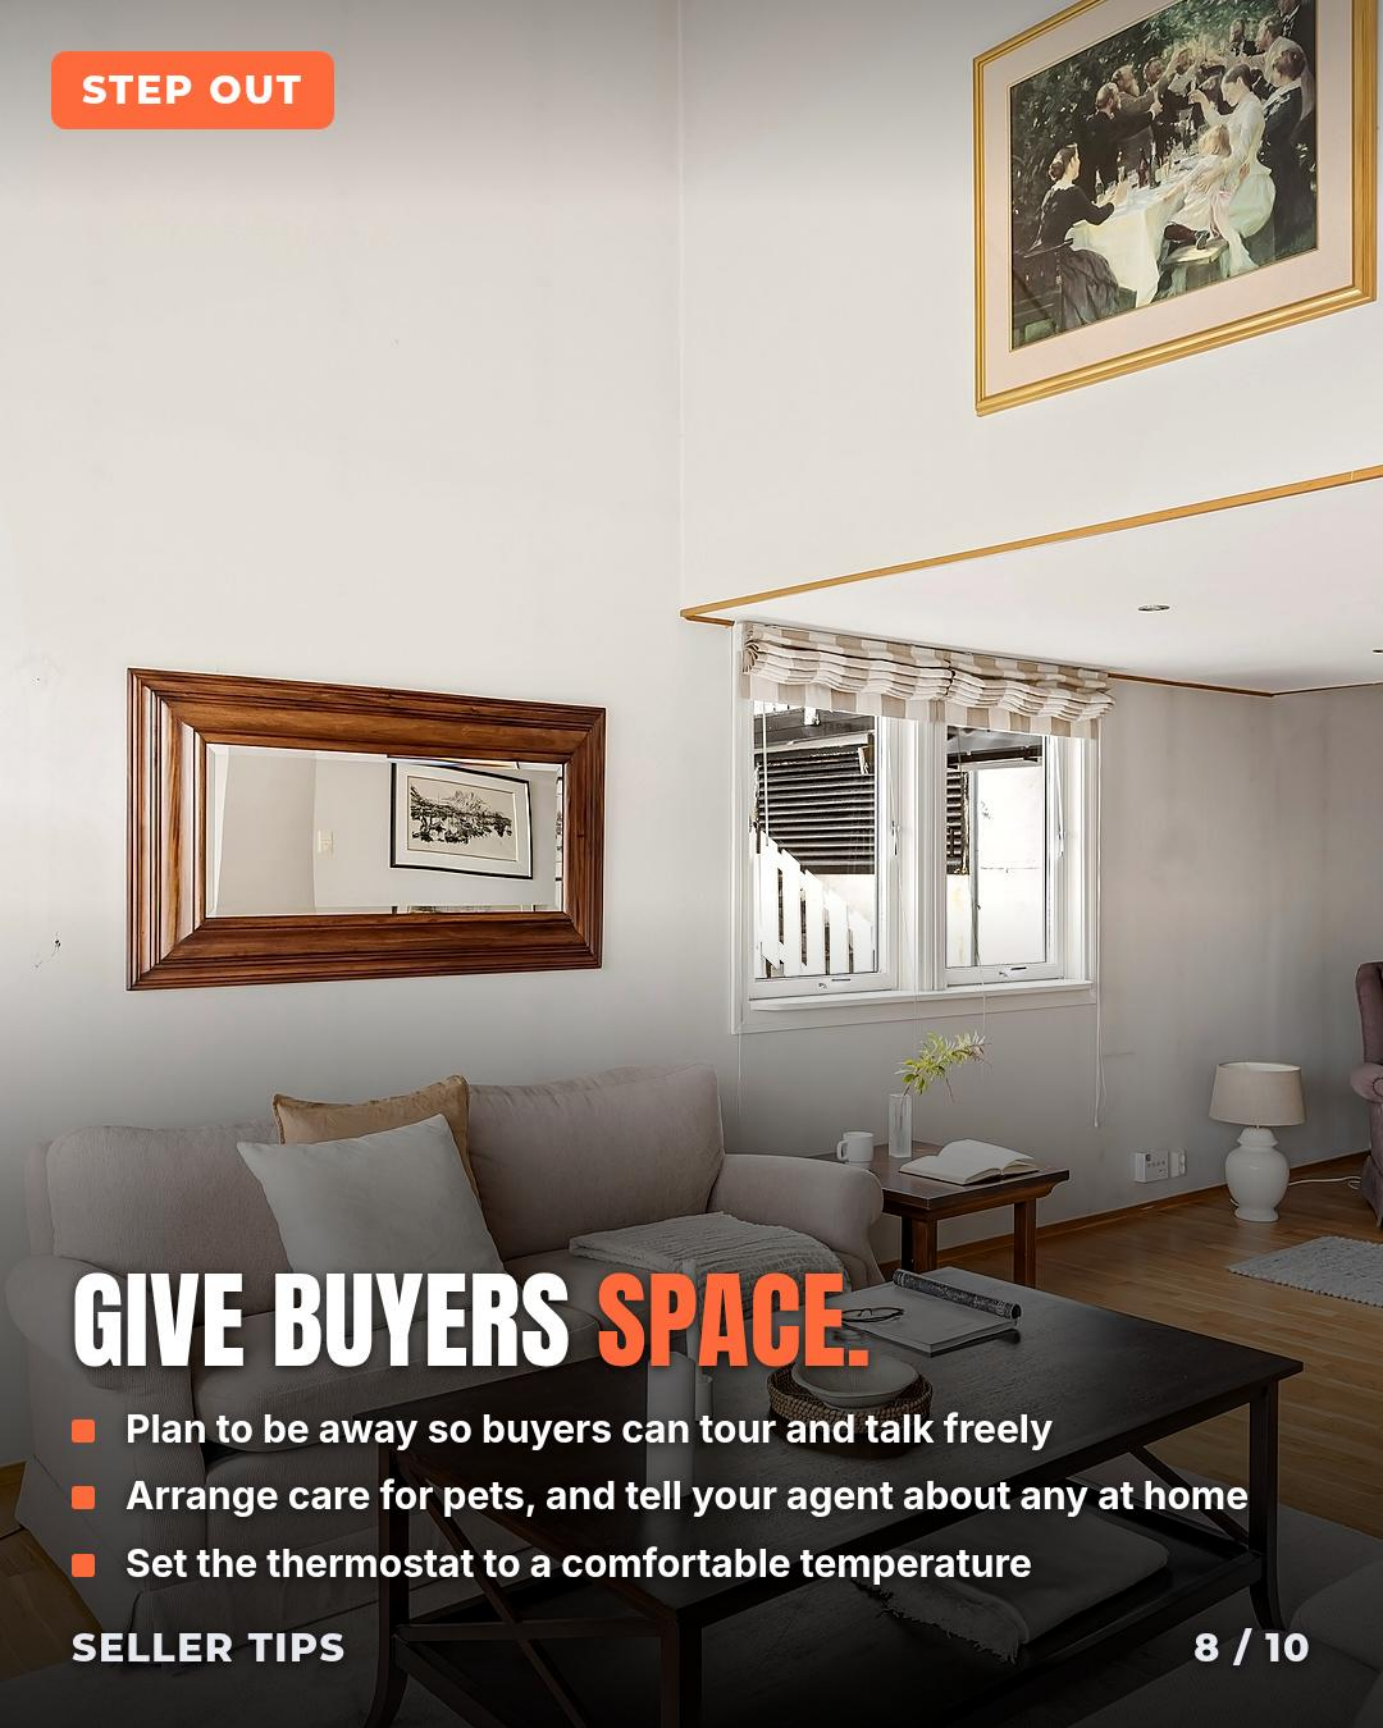

- Store jewelry, cash and small electronics out of sight
- Secure prescription medications and personal papers
- Ask your agent how showings and lockbox access will work

FRESH + CLEAN

KEEP IT FRESH.

- Clean kitchens and baths until they shine
- Air the house out and skip strong scents
- Fix small things: drips, loose handles, sticky doors

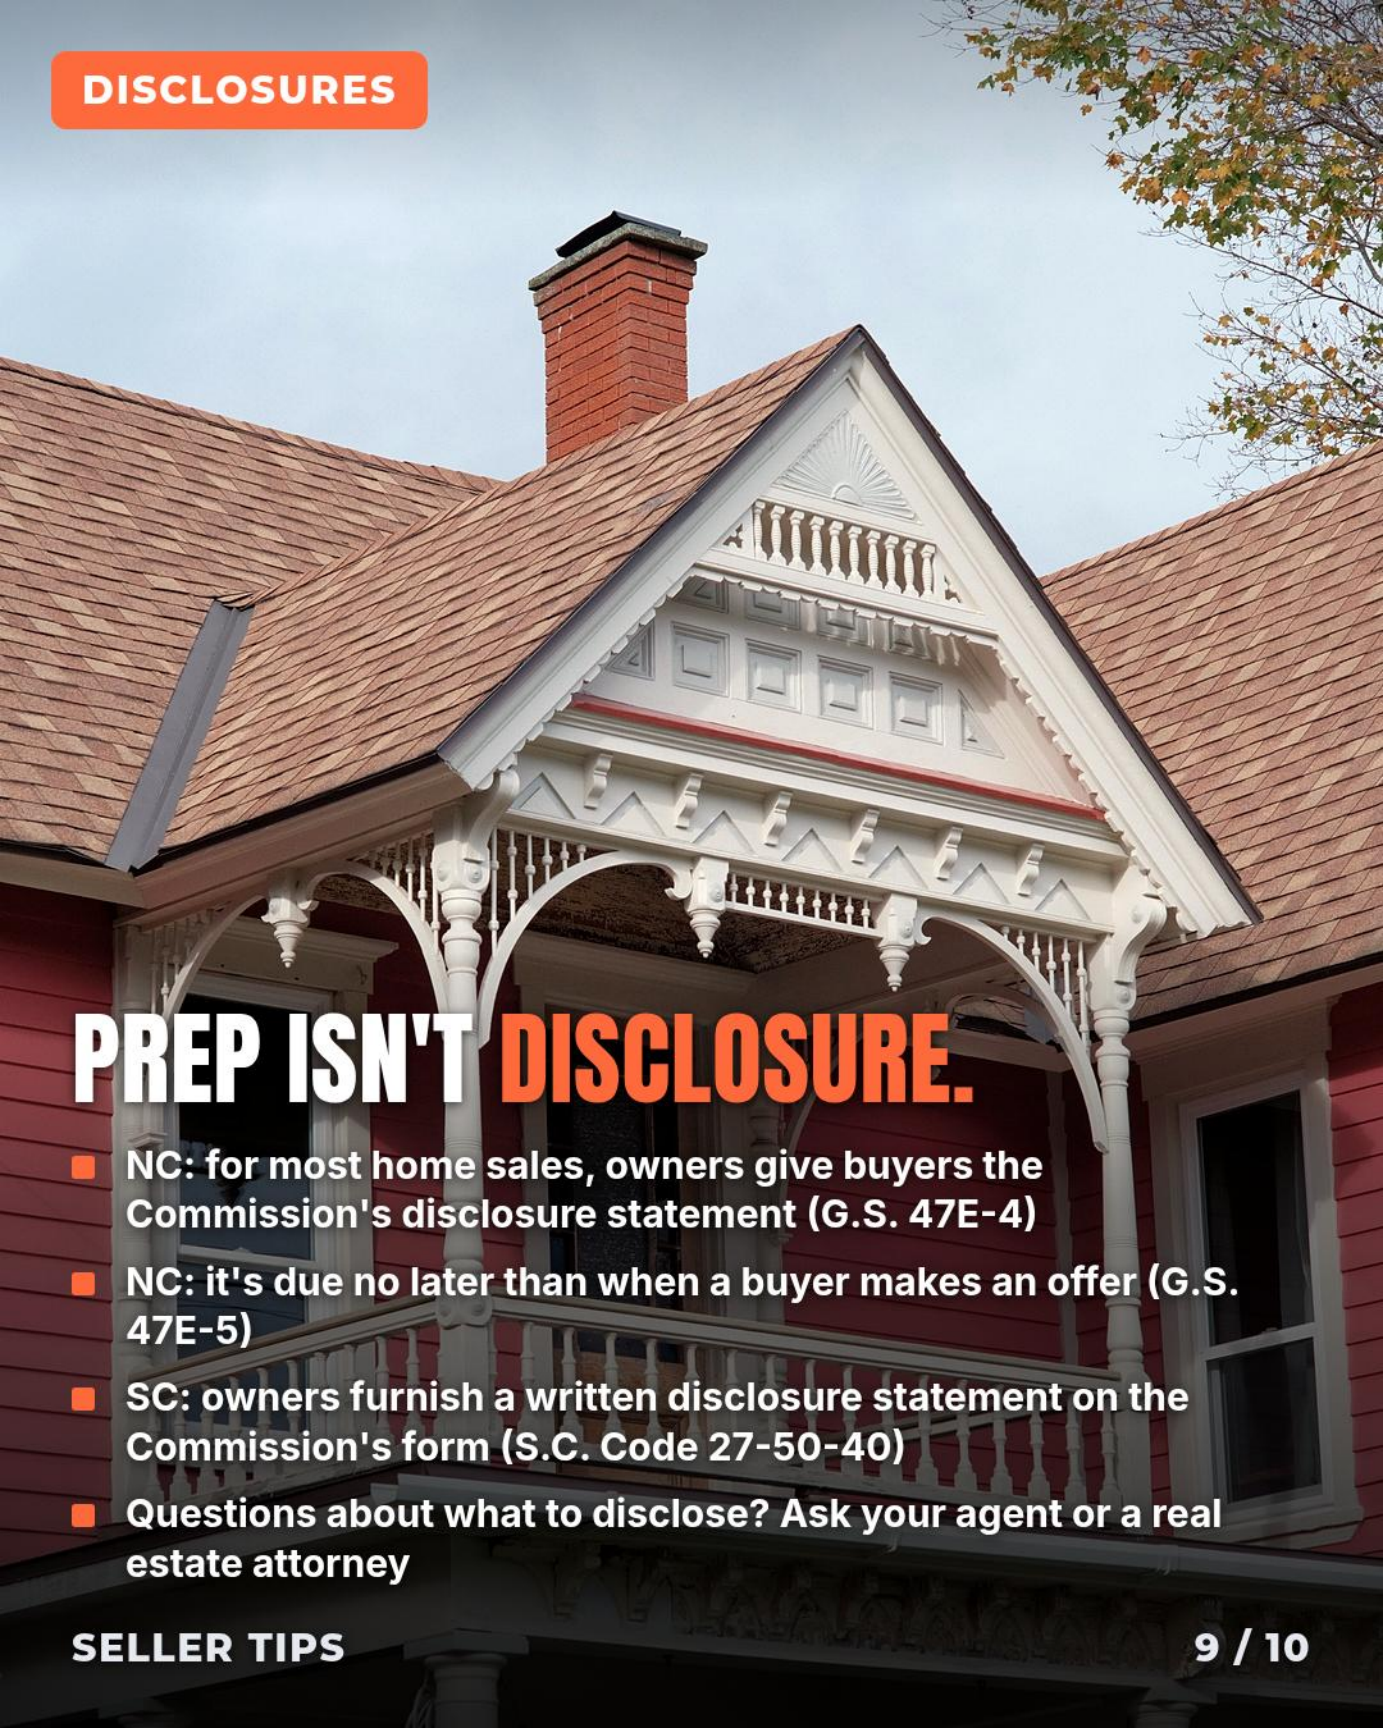

STEP OUT

GIVE BUYERS SPACE.

- Plan to be away so buyers can tour and talk freely
- Arrange care for pets, and tell your agent about any at home
- Set the thermostat to a comfortable temperature

DISCLOSURES

PREP ISN'T DISCLOSURE.

- NC: for most home sales, owners give buyers the Commission's disclosure statement (G.S. 47E-4)
- NC: it's due no later than when a buyer makes an offer (G.S. 47E-5)
- SC: owners furnish a written disclosure statement on the Commission's form (S.C. Code 27-50-40)
- Questions about what to disclose? Ask your agent or a real estate attorney

MY RECOMMENDATION

MAKE EVERY SHOWING COUNT.

I recommend a walk-through with your agent before the first showing, room by room, so small fixes get done early. Let's make your plan together.
