BUYER TIP

TITLE MEANS OWNERSHIP.

At closing, the deed shows the seller transferred ownership, or "title," to you.

- Old claims can surface later
- Like unpaid taxes or contractors
- Title search: public records
- Title insurance can cover them

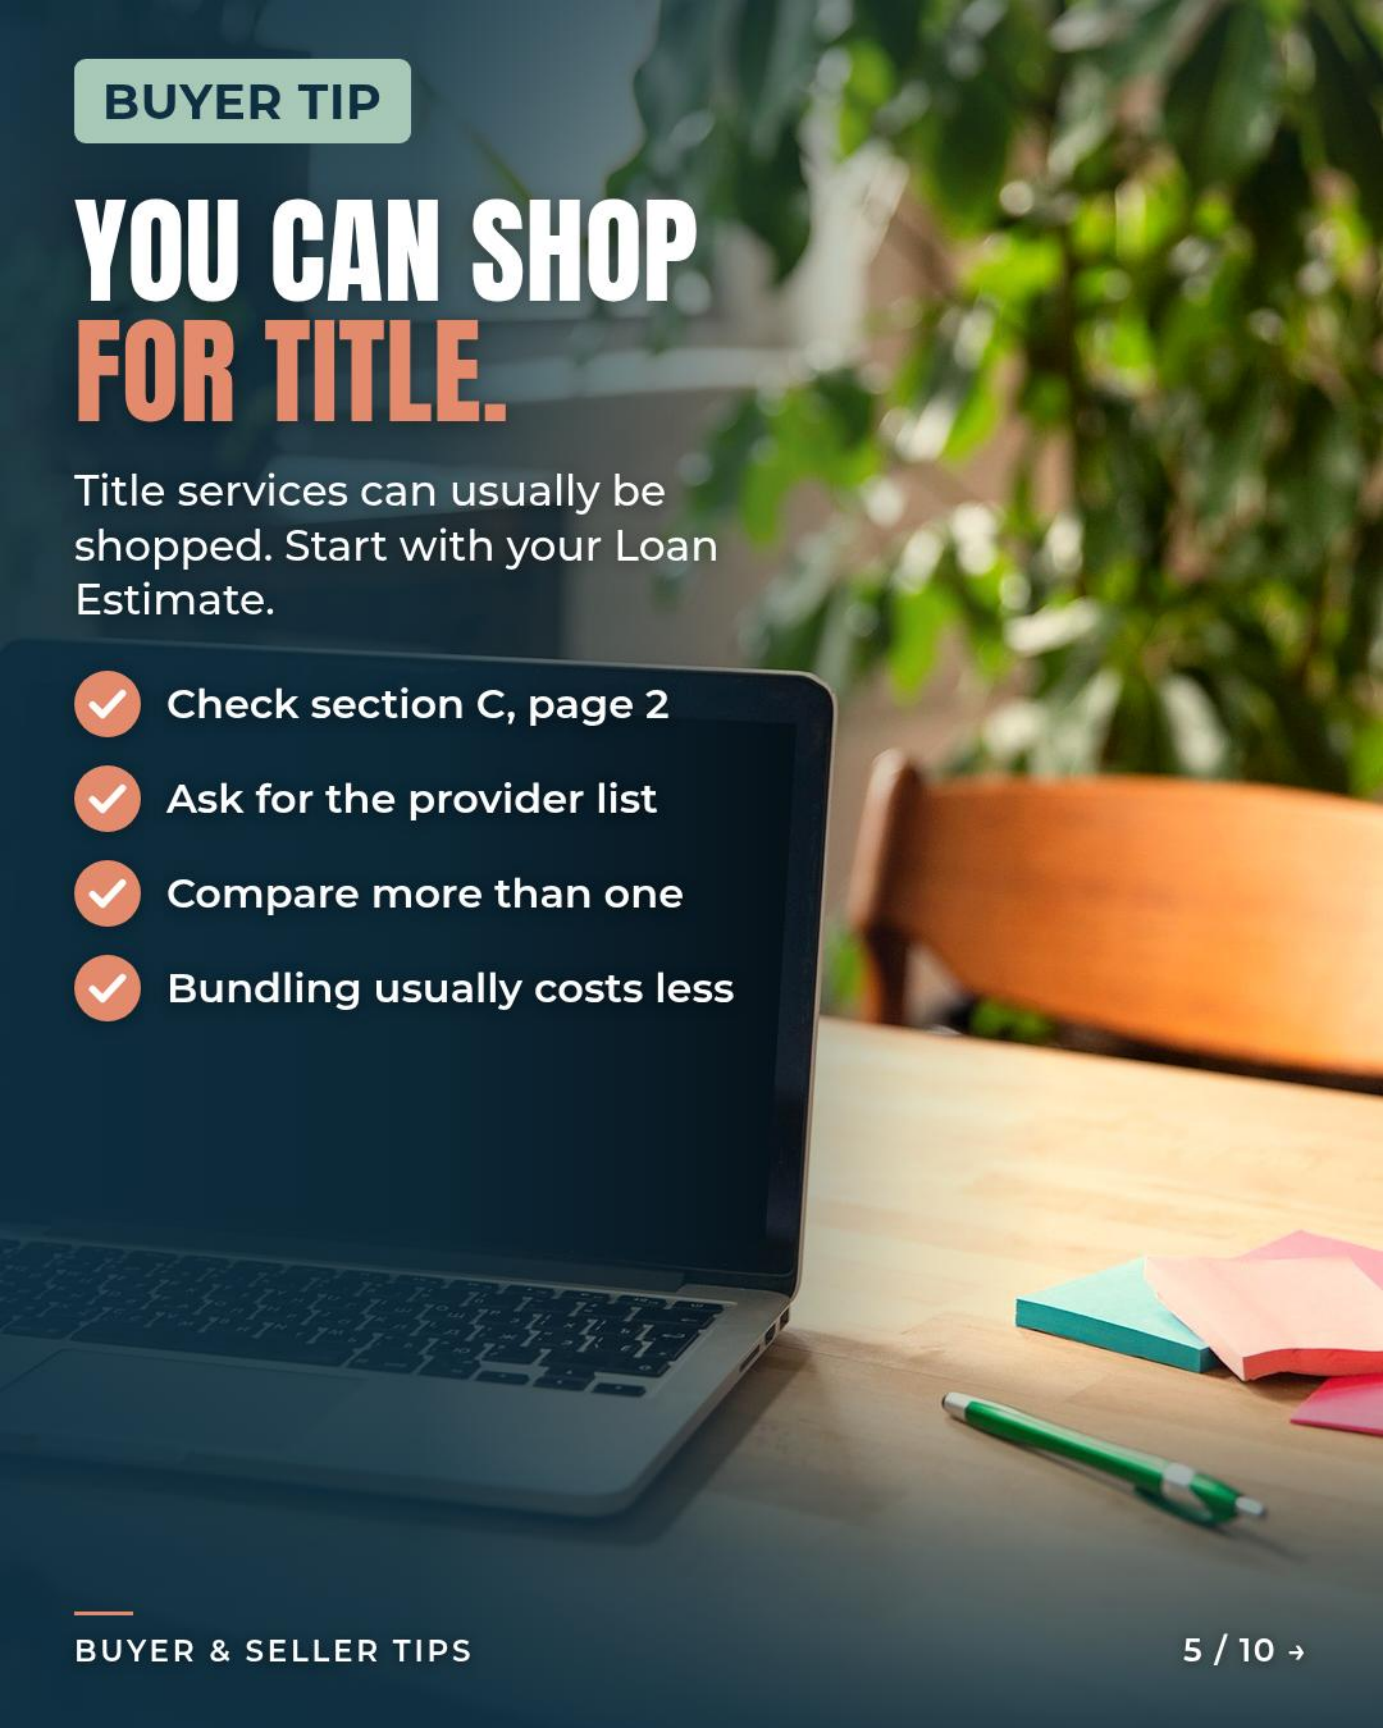

BUYER TIP

LENDER'S POLICY VS. OWNER'S.

Two policies, two jobs. An owner's policy can help protect your investment.

- Lender's: usually required
- Protects the lender's loan
- Not your equity
- Owner's policy is optional

BUYER TIP

YOU CAN SHOP FOR TITLE.

Title services can usually be shopped. Start with your Loan Estimate.

- Check section C, page 2
- Ask for the provider list
- Compare more than one
- Bundling usually costs less

BUYER TIP

KNOW WHERE THE LINES ARE.

A survey shows what you're buying on the ground, not just on paper.

- Boundaries and property lines
- Easements and setbacks
- A due diligence item in NC
- Order it early

BUYER TIP

READ THE LAND QUESTIONS.

NC's disclosure (REC 4.22) asks about issues on or around the property.

- Easements, shared driveways
- Encroachments, private roads
- Liens that could affect title
- SC's form covers covenants too

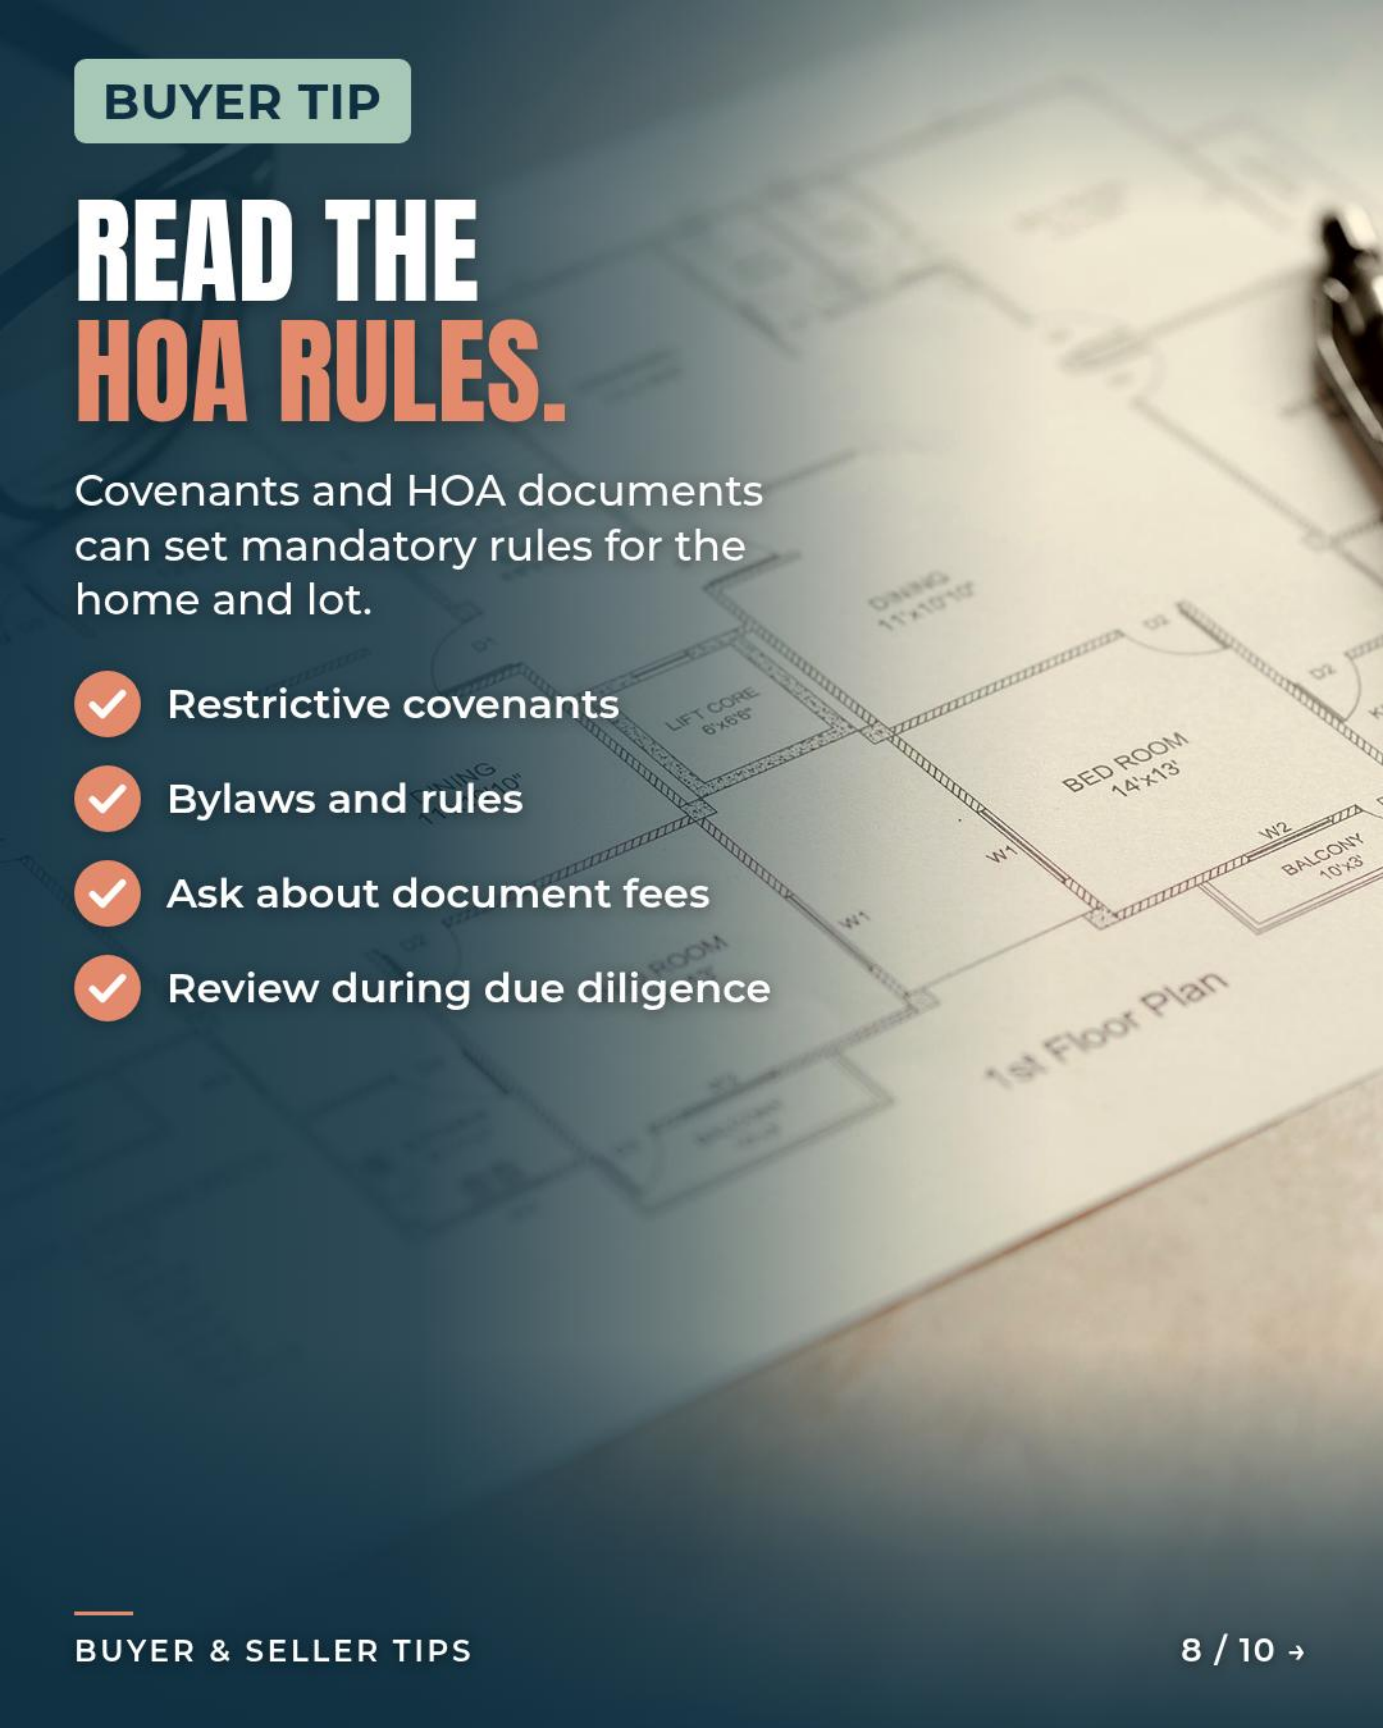

BUYER TIP

READ THE HOA RULES.

Covenants and HOA documents can set mandatory rules for the home and lot.

- Restrictive covenants
- Bylaws and rules
- Ask about document fees
- Review during due diligence

BUYER TIP

ASK QUESTIONS BEFORE YOU SIGN.

Your closing attorney can explain what the title search found.

- Review the title results
- Ask what exceptions mean
- Compare survey to your tour
- Bring questions early
