SELLER TIP 1

MOVED AWAY? STILL OWN HERE?

YOU CAN SELL A SOUTHPARK HOME WITHOUT LIVING HERE

What it takes: a clear plan, paperwork started early, and a local team who can be your eyes on the house.

THE MARKET

SOUTHPARK · AS OF SEPTEMBER 2026

MEDIAN LIST	$625,000
MEDIAN SOLD	$610,000
ACTIVE	573 homes
DAYS ON MKT	53 (median)

START THE DISCLOSURE FIRST

- NC law (G.S. 47E) requires owners to complete the Residential Property and Owners' Association Disclosure Statement
- Give it to the buyer before any offer
- If you don't, a buyer may be able to cancel

ANSWER EVERY QUESTION

- Each one gets Y, N, NR (no representation) or NA
- The answers are yours, not your broker's
- Brokers cannot fill it out for you

KEEP IT CURRENT

- Learn something new after you complete it? The Disclosure must be updated
- Buyers and prospective buyers should be told right away
- A local check on a vacant home helps you catch changes

LINE UP YOUR CLOSING ATTORNEY EARLY

- In NC, a licensed NC attorney supervises residential real estate closings
- Ask them up front how you'll sign from out of state

SELLING AS A NONRESIDENT?

- The buyer files Form NC-1099NRS with NC Revenue
- Due within 15 days of closing
- You get a copy of it

PLAN FOR NC TAXES

- A nonresident who sells NC real property files an NC return
- Tax applies to the gain from the sale
- Talk with your tax professional before you list

SELLER TIP 8

BE THERE WITHOUT BEING THERE

- Video walkthroughs before photos and showings
- Someone local for keys, vendors and weather checks
- Showing feedback sent to you in writing

My process, not a legal requirement

START 60 DAYS OUT

Get the disclosure, attorney and tax questions moving before the sign goes up. I'll handle the local side.
