CHARLOTTE NC. CHERRY.

AN 1891 NEIGHBORHOOD NEXT TO UPTOWN.

- Cherry sits less than a mile from Uptown Charlotte, with Kings Drive and Little Sugar Creek along its western edge
- John and Mary Myers laid out its first house lots in 1891
- That was about 20 years before work began on nearby Myers Park

THE NAME

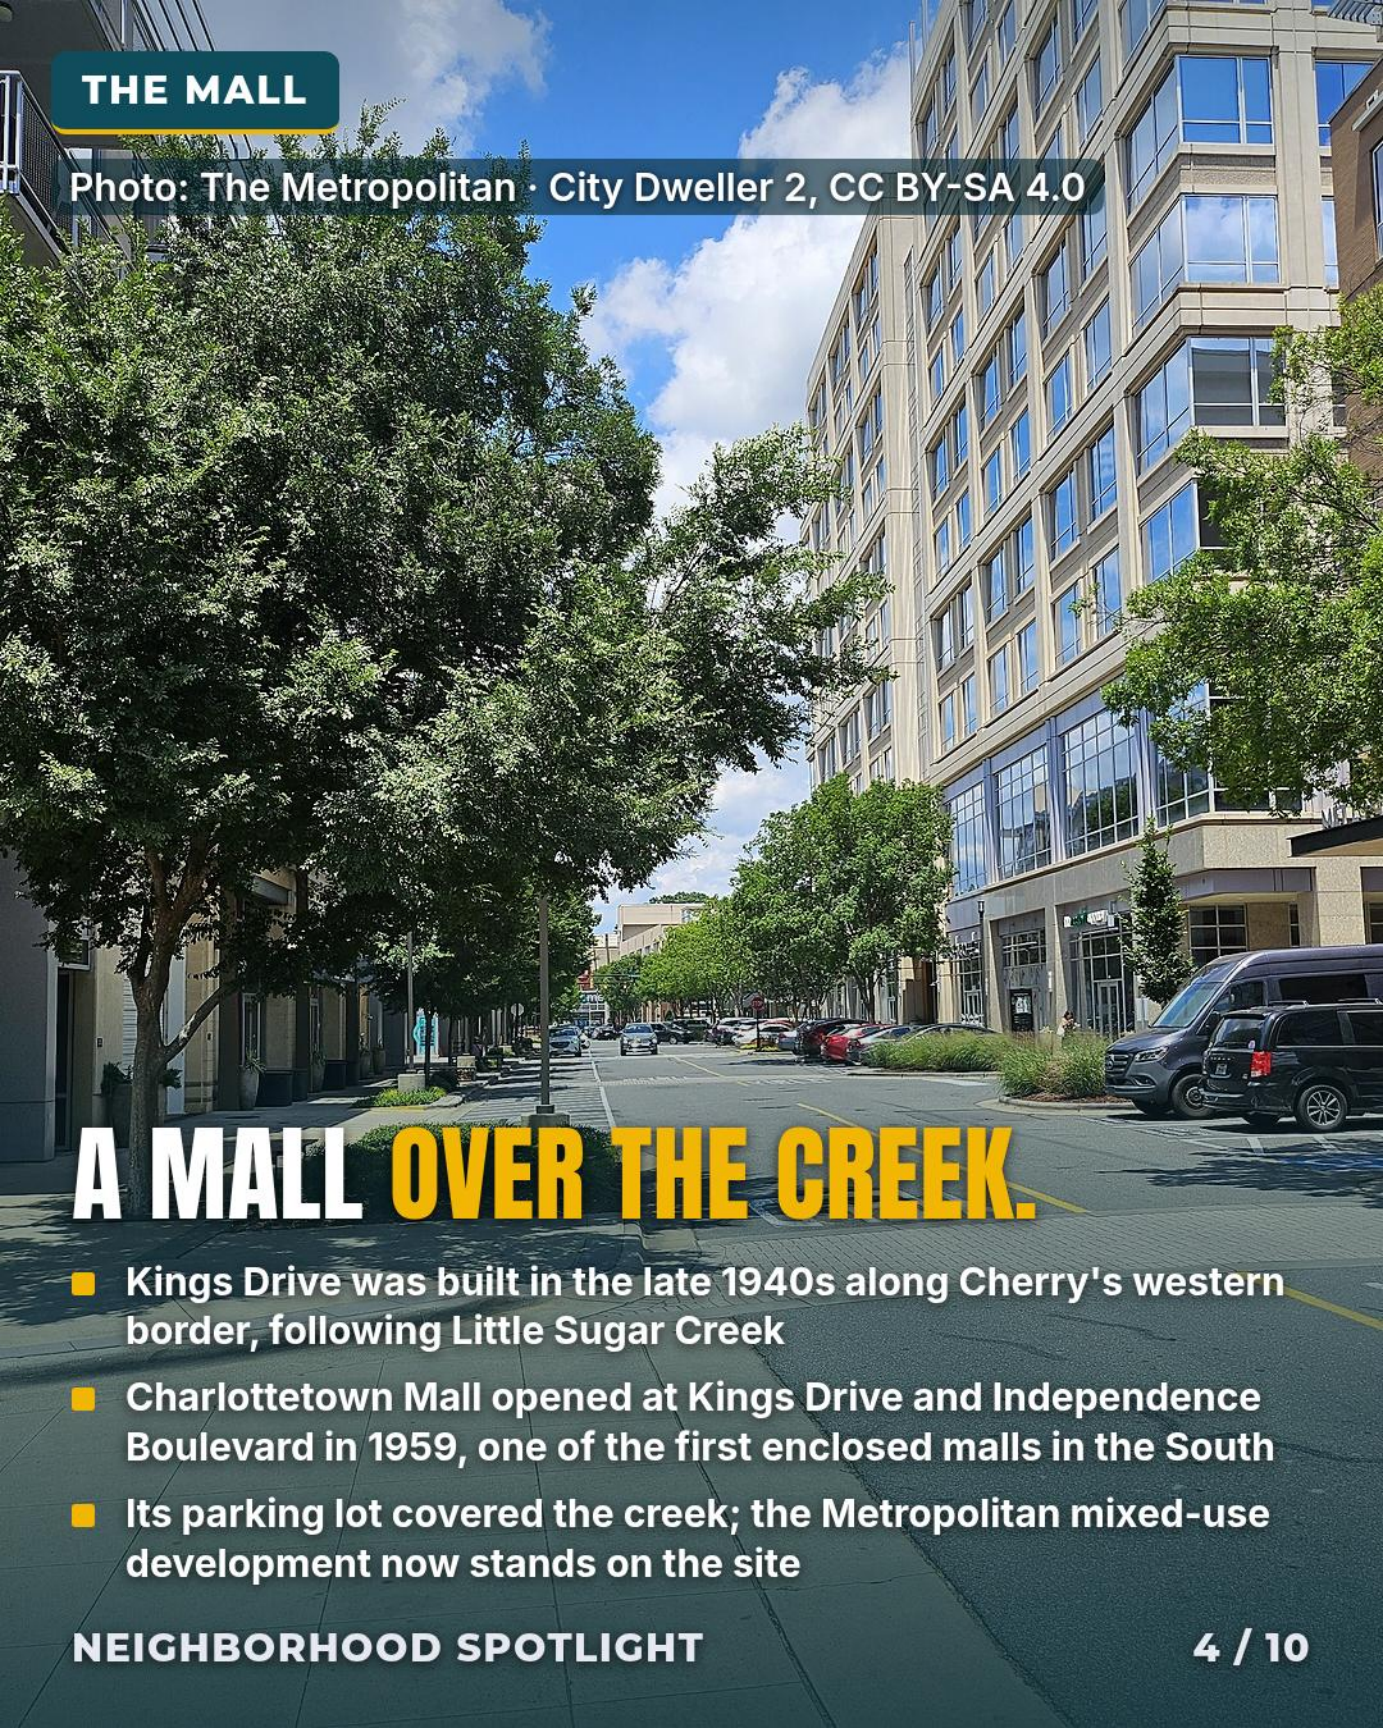

NAMED FOR CHERRY TREES.

- The name is said to come from the cherry trees that grew on the hillsides of the hollow
- The Myers laid it out on part of their 1,000-acre cotton farm
- The first homes went up on Cherry, Main and Luther streets

PORCHES, OLD AND NEW.

- Cherry's early cottages and duplexes were built with front porches
- Bungalow-style cottages followed after World War I
- Newer homes are bigger: average single-family living space rose from 1,285 to 2,054 sq. ft. from 2011 to 2019 (UNC Charlotte Urban Institute)

THE MALL

A MALL OVER THE CREEK.

- Kings Drive was built in the late 1940s along Cherry's western border, following Little Sugar Creek
- Charlottetown Mall opened at Kings Drive and Independence Boulevard in 1959, one of the first enclosed malls in the South
- Its parking lot covered the creek; the Metropolitan mixed-use development now stands on the site

THE CREEK COMES BACK.

- The mall came down in late 2005, and the creek was uncovered
- The restoration added meanders, riffles, rain gardens and native plantings
- The Little Sugar Creek Greenway now runs past the Metropolitan, from 7th Street to Morehead Street

HISTORY ALONG THE TRAIL.

- The Trail of History places larger-than-life statues along the greenway between 7th Street and Morehead Street
- Chas Fagan's bronze of Capt. James Jack on horseback was dedicated on May 20, 2010
- It stands in a fountain near East 4th Street and Kings Drive, a short walk up the greenway

MIDTOWN PARK

UPTOWN VIEWS FROM THE LAWN.

- Midtown Park, one acre at South Kings Drive and Pearl Park Way, opened in spring 2012
- Its seven-foot metal sphere, the Braille Music Box by Po Shu Wang and Louise Bertelsen, turns Braille letters into musical notes
- A formal stairway connects the park to the greenway

MY TIP

COMPARE OLD AND NEW.

- Check Mecklenburg County property records for each home's year built, heated square feet and lot size
- Ask whether a house is single-family or a duplex, and confirm its zoning on the City of Charlotte's zoning map
- Near the creek, check the FEMA flood map before you make an offer

LET'S TOUR IT TOGETHER.

We'll walk the greenway from Midtown Park, stop by Cherry Neighborhood Park, and compare older cottages with newer homes before you make an offer.
