THE TOWN

JUST ACROSS THE STATE LINE.

- Fort Mill sits in northeastern York County, South Carolina, just south of the North Carolina line
- Charlotte lies to the north and Rock Hill to the south
- From I-77 at Exit 85, SC 160 heads east into town

THE HISTORY

A FORT AND A GRIST MILL.

- The name joins a colonial-era fort with a grist mill on Steele Creek, known as Webb's Mill
- The South Carolina General Assembly chartered the town on Feb. 12, 1873
- Fort Mill Manufacturing Co. was chartered in 1887 and later became part of Springs Cotton Mills

THE BUILDINGS

BRICK FRONTS ON MAIN STREET.

- The Fort Mill Downtown Historic District joined the National Register on June 11, 1992
- Its one- and two-story masonry storefronts were built between 1860 and 1940
- Look for corbelled brick and recessed panels at 210, 223 and 225 Main St., all from around 1900

2,100 ACRES OF GREENWAY.

- The Anne Springs Close Greenway opened in 1995 and covers more than 2,100 acres in Fort Mill
- Its 40 miles of trails pass Lake Haigler, the Steele Creek swinging bridge and historic Nation Ford Road
- Day admission is $17 per adult and $8 for ages 3 to 12; trails are open 7 a.m. to sunset

THE PARK

A PARK ON WHITE STREET.

- Walter Y. Elisha Park covers 12 acres at 345 N. White St., between Ardrey and Sidney Johnson streets
- It has a 0.6-mile walking trail, a playground, eight arbor swings, an amphitheater and open lawn
- A trail links it to Harris Street, and it hosts the annual South Carolina Strawberry Festival

MAIN STREET

HOLIDAYS DOWNTOWN.

- The Third Thursday Art Crawl turns downtown shops into pop-up galleries, next on Nov. 19, 4 to 8 p.m.
- The free Christmas Village and Tree Lighting is Dec. 3, 5 to 8 p.m., at Walter Y. Elisha Park
- The 79th annual Fort Mill Christmas Parade steps off Dec. 5 at 11 a.m. in historic downtown

MY TIP

ASK ABOUT THE 4% RATIO.

- In S.C., a legal residence is assessed at 4% of fair market value; most other real property is at 6%
- The 4% ratio isn't automatic: each new owner applies with the York County Assessor's Office
- Apply before the first tax penalty date of the first year you claim it, with proof of domicile ready

MY RECOMMENDATION

LET'S TOUR IT TOGETHER.

We'll walk Main Street, visit the Greenway and Elisha Park, and compare homes before you make an offer.
