IT STARTED AS STUMPTOWN.

- Settlers clearing land for cotton left so many tree stumps that the early settlement was unofficially called Stumptown
- In July 1825, John Miles Fullwood became postmaster and ran a stagecoach stop, store and post office from his home
- Mail went to Fullwood Station, and Stumptown gradually became known as Fullwood

THE RAILROAD

THE TRAIN NAMED THE TOWN

- The first train rolled into town on Dec. 15, 1874
- The railroad named the stop Matthews, after Edward Matthews, a director of the company
- By 1875, mail went to Matthews Station, and the town was incorporated as Matthews in 1879

TRADE STREET

HISTORY ON TRADE STREET.

- Ten buildings on North Trade and East Charles streets make up the Matthews Commercial Historic District, on the National Register since 1996
- They date from 1888 to 1939, from the Heath and Reid General Store to a former 1939 U.S. Post Office
- Up the street, the Matthews Heritage Museum fills the 1879 Massey-Clark House (Thursday to Saturday, free admission)

SATURDAYS AT THE MARKET.

- The Matthews Community Farmers' Market sets up at 188 N. Trade St. every Saturday, year-round
- Main-season hours are 8 a.m. to noon through Nov. 21, 2026; winter hours, 9 to 11 a.m., start Dec. 5
- Free parking is on Trade Street, Charles Street and in the grassy lot off Cotton Gin Alley

A STAGE DOWNTOWN.

- Stumptown Park, two acres at 120 S. Trade St., is used year-round for concerts and special events
- It has a performance stage with a dance floor, a playground, a sand volleyball court and picnic areas
- It is open dawn to dusk, and the volleyball court and picnic area are first-come, first-served

THE GREENWAY

TRAILS TO THE LAKE.

- Four Mile Creek Greenway runs 3.3 miles, connecting downtown Matthews with Squirrel Lake Park
- Squirrel Lake Park covers 36 acres, with a fishing pier, walking trails and a 12-hole disc golf course
- The greenway also links to the Matthews Heritage Trail and the Sportsplex at Matthews

MY TIP

KNOW YOUR TOWN LINES.

- Matthews is its own town: inside town limits, one tax bill covers Town of Matthews and Mecklenburg County taxes
- Confirm whether a home is inside town limits, and look up the parcel in Mecklenburg County property records
- Near Four Mile Creek, check the FEMA flood map before you make an offer

MY RECOMMENDATION

LET'S TOUR IT TOGETHER.

We'll start at the Saturday market on Trade Street, walk a stretch of the Four Mile Creek Greenway, and compare homes before you make an offer.
