THE LAKE

A TOWN ON LAKE NORMAN.

- Davidson sits in northern Mecklenburg County, and a portion of the town extends north into Iredell County
- The town's western edge follows the shoreline of Lake Norman, a large reservoir on the Catawba River
- An arm of the lake on the east side of I-77 is known as Lake Davidson

THE COLLEGE CAME FIRST.

- Davidson College opened in 1837, named for Revolutionary War Gen. William Lee Davidson
- Its first 469 acres were bought from his son, William Lee Davidson II
- The town incorporated as Davidson College in 1879 and changed its name to Davidson in 1891

PORCHES AND OLD HOMES.

- The Davidson Historic District was added to the National Register of Historic Places in 2009
- Its homes range from Greek Revival and Queen Anne to Craftsman bungalows and 1950s modernist houses
- Elm Row and Oak Row, two 1837 college dormitories, are the oldest buildings in the district

SATURDAYS ON MAIN STREET.

- The Town Green is downtown on Main Street, home to the Davidson library branch at 119 S. Main St.
- In season, the town's Concerts on the Green play second and fourth Saturdays, 6 to 8 p.m.
- The Davidson Farmers Market sets up at 120 S. Main St. every Saturday through Nov. 21, 9 a.m. to noon

TRAILS THROUGH TOWN.

- Town greenways offer more than six miles of walkable space
- Sweetgum, tulip poplar and eastern red cedar line the 2.8-mile Randall R. Kincaid Trail
- Abersham Park's paved greenway continues into 200-acre Fisher Farm Park, with four miles of mountain bike trails

LAKE ACCESS

PADDLE LAKE DAVIDSON.

- The town has two public lake-access parks: Parham Park and the Lake Davidson Nature Preserve
- The preserve, at 750 Jetton St., has a half-mile lakeside loop trail, picnic tables, a gazebo and a public launch
- Town canoe, kayak and paddleboard rentals run April through October, Saturdays 2 to 5 p.m.

MY TIP

CHECK THE DISTRICT FIRST.

- Downtown, parts of the campus and North Main Street are in Davidson's local historic district
- There, many exterior changes need a Certificate of Appropriateness from the Historic Preservation Commission
- National Register listing alone doesn't restrict private owners, so ask which district a home is in before you plan changes

MY RECOMMENDATION

LET'S TOUR IT TOGETHER.

We'll walk Main Street and the Town Green, visit the lake preserve, and compare homes before you make an offer.
